Richly scented with an abundance of pear, melon and stone fruits. The delicious mineral backbone carries the rich body of the wine with ease. The acidity keeps it fresh and the citrus and stone fruit flavours linger in the lengthy finish.

Tasting notes:

One of our bestsellers and for good reason. This lush and smooth Italian red always impresses with its bouquet of blackcurrant and bramble aromas and its long velvety finish. The depth of fruit comes from the partially dried fruit before pressing.

This family-run estate is based on the shores of Lake Garda. Their Valpolicella is a fantastically structured yet smooth and elegant wine with notes of cherry, spices and ripe plum fruit. The wine is already drinking now but will age beautifully.

This tastes akin to a Pinot meeting a Nebbiolo and it looks that way too. Lightish in colour with an attractive herbaceous nose and a flavour that demands a second sip/glass. Red fruit combines with volcanic minerality. Such an interesting and tasty wine.

Bottle price (inc vat)

£16.95

Vintage: 2016

Grape: Sangiovese / Merlot

ABV: 14%

Closure: Cork

Tasting notes:

Fresh cranberry, cherry and redcurrant aromas with added subtle spice from old oak barrel ageing. This ageing has made the tannins from the Sangiovese wonderfully soft and further mellowed by 30% of ripe rounded Merlot in the blend. This has a polished silky quality less typical than what you expect from the region.

60. Rosso di Montalcino DOCG 'La Mannella', Cortonesi, Tuscany

Bottle price (ex vat)

£15.42

Bottle price (inc vat)

£18.50

Vintage: 2015

Grape: Sangiovese

ABV: 14.5%

Closure: Cork

Tasting notes:

A more juicy approachable sangiovese than its big Brunello brother. The blackberry, red and black cherry fruit is ripe and fragrant while the acidity keeps the wines fresh and vibrant on the palate. The wine still has good structure in the mouth with firm and ripe tannins that will hold up well against rich food dishes. Rosso di Montalcino is a great riper styled alternative than a Chianti Classico.

Tasting notes:

There is Chianti, then there is Riecine Classico Chianti. This is top of the leader board for this style and we loved its' rusticity and gravitas and how the raspberry-like fruit seemed to give and give. This is a really classic and elegant example.

62. Brunello di Montalcino DOCG 'La Mannella', Cortonesi, Tuscany

Bottle price (ex vat)

£30.00

Bottle price (inc vat)

£36.00

Vintage: 2012

Grape: Sangiovese

Tasting notes:

Ripe black cherry and forest fruit flavours with additional light perfumed fragrant spices. The extended maturation in large oak barrels gives the wine fantastic concentration and a silky texture despite being well structured with firm but ripe tannins. The great layered textural quality of the wine makes it stand out from the crowd with a lovely balance of richness and elegance.
